Silver Lane Advises Westport Resources in Sale to United Capital

New York, NY, September 9, 2016 — United Capital Financial Advisers, LLC (“United Capital”), a financial life management firm, today announced the addition of $373 million in assets under management to its platform through its newest acquisition of Westport Resources in Connecticut. Silver Lane is pleased to have served as financial advisor to Westport Resources.

United Capital acquired the Private Client Group from Westport Resources, a registered investment advisor in Westport, Connecticut. Westport Resources specializes in wealth management for a select group of individuals, families, municipalities and not-for-profit organizations across the Northeast. The company will be renamed Westport Resources, a division of United Capital. The firm's CEO and founder, John Vaccaro, has joined United Capital as a managing director.

Silver Lane’s senior deal team included Ed Higham and Liz Nesvold. For additional news about Silver Lane, please click here.
